FATHER OF KAUAI PHYSICIAN DIES AT EASTERN HOME

Thomas D. West of Cleveland, a world authority on iron and steel manufacture, died last Friday following an automobile accident. Dr. West of Makaweli, Kauai, his eldest son, was notified by cable.

Mr. West was born in Manchester, England, 1852, and was a descendant of Earl De la Warre.

His scientific works have been published in a number of foreign countries, and he was a member of the Iron and Steel Institute of England, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and at one time was president of the American Foundrymen's Association.

Of his numerous scientific inventions several were adopted by the U.
S. government. Since his retirement from active business a few years ago he was prominent in civil and philanthropic movements, and as a lecturer before some of the leading technical schools and universities of the country.

HERMANN'S SONS BACK PETITION TO KEEP PEACE

Petitions addressed to President Wilson and wireless to Washington have been sent from Honolulu praying for "peace with honor" and stating that war is not wanted with "any foreign nation." Although no public announcement had been made to that effect, the petitions were ordered circulated by the newly organized Order of Hermann's Sons.

It was the organization's intention to confine the petition to the adoption of a resolution, but it was later decided to circulate throughout the city petitions praying for peace with European powers. Senator Ambrose J.
Wirtz was one of those to circulate the memorials.

There are 191 signers and among these are former Queens Liliuokalani, Delegate K. K. K. (former Governor George R. Carter, Mayor Lane, President C. F. Chillingworth of the 1915 senate and well known professional and business men of Honolulu. The main petition follows:

"Honolulu, T. H., June 17, 1915.
The President, Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Washington, D. C.:

"Sir—Believing that every honorable private and public sacrifice should be made to the end that our country shall not become involved in war with any foreign nation, we, the undersigned, loyal citizens of the United States and supporters of your European war policy, sincerely hope that your action may result in more firmly establishing with the warring nations our desire to maintain peace at home and attain peace abroad."

Sar Pung Chung, listed in the city directory as editor of the Wah Hing Bo, a Chinese tri-weekly newspaper, entered a plea of not guilty in federal court Saturday to a charge of having obscene literature in his possession. The case has been continued until called up.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

STORY OF TENNESSEE 'MOONSHINERS'

Mary Anderson's picturization in a leading role reaches the highest plane in emotional acting in the great mountain drama "Regan's Daughter," a two-part feature to be presented by an all-star cast at the Empire theater today.

Harry Northrup, James Morrison, Dorothy Kelly and James Cooper return to the playhouse in this film adaptation of a story that deals with the adventures of a revenue officer in quest of a "moonshine" still in the Tennessee mountains. The other captures an outlaw who is his sweet-heart's father. The illicit distiller saves the life of the federal agent at the cost of his own. The plot depicts the extent to which feuds were conducted in isolated sections of the southland, before bands of desperate moonshiners were driven from the country.

It is seldom that a real heart-interest "dog story" makes good on the screen. "The Heart of Sonny Jim" is a clever drama by Rosetta Bonnell. A superb cast is seen in support of Mabel Kelly, including Bobby Connolly, Tedd Johnson and Will Dunn.

"The Spirit of Jealousy" tells a pathetic story behind which is a shadow of spiritual purpose. "The Borrowed Book" is a comedy, one of the kind guaranteed to drive away gloom. The program will close with the comedy
"The Peddler's Bag."

PLOT TO CORNER WHEAT IS FAILURE

"The Pit," featuring Wilton Lackaye and Miss Gail Kane, is probably one of the strongest dramas or photo-plays of its kind ever produced.

At Ye Liberty theater for the next three nights "The Pit" will be the strong feature offering, having been shown last night at the Bijou to a good sized house and proved a most entertaining offering.

An artist by the name of Cortbell, and Jadwin, the speculator who proves unsuccessful in his efforts to corner the market, are fast friends. Jadwin is wrapped up in his speculations and his wife seeks solace elsewhere, principally in the company of Cortbell.

Jadwin's wheat corner is attacked by Crookes, his business rival, and the film shows a thrilling scene of the turmoil in the wheat pit as Jadwin endeavors to stem the tide of defeat.

The support of the wife in the hour of his deepest need gives Jadwin the requisite strength to reap a lesson from the ashes of his struggle for supremacy.

The seventh episode of "The Exploits of Elaine" will also be shown at Ye Liberty for the next three nights, with a matinee Wednesday.

DELICACIES ARRIVE TOMORROW.

The Matsunia tomorrow not only brings fresh California fruit, vegetables and Puritan creamery butter to Henry May & Co., Ltd., but also—for the delicatessen counter—boiled ham, smoked beef, knackwurst, Polish sausage, bratwurst, Westphalia sausage, blood tongue, liver loaf, Ashland ham, and an assortment of cheese in foil glass and tins. Phone 1271 for your share.—Adv.

It is reported in Detroit that another $10,000,000 dividend was declared by the Ford Motor Company.

KEEP YOUR CHILDREN STRONG

Some children catch one ailment after another, have colds after colds, while other children are seldom sick.

If your children are pale or frail, if they catch colds easily, lack ambition or are backward in school, they need SCOTT'S EMULSION which is rich in the food elements to create good blood to strengthen their bodies and brains—SCOTT'S EMULSION is free from alcohol or habit forming drugs.

CHILDREN RELISH IT.
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

IS CRUSHED BY FATHER'S CURSE

"The Dancing Girl," featuring Florence Reed, continues to be a popular attraction at the Bijou theater, where it will be presented for the next three nights. A photo-play of strong contrasts is probably the most thorough definition that can be given to this Daniel Frohman offering. From Quaker maiden to the dancing girl is the gamut run by the beautiful Drusilla Ives. The rocky coast of "Endellion" and the rich interior of the magnificent home of the Duke, under whose protecting wing the dancing girl lives, is another strong contrast.

Probably the greatest and most thrilling incident of the play is the famous "staircase scene," where the Dancing Girl, at the zenith of her fame, has come to dance before the Duke's own family and is discovered by her staid old Quaker father. The girl defies the father, only to be crushed by the terrible wrath of his curse. She faints and falls the length of the grand staircase, and "wakens to consciousness" and at the same time to a realization of the disgrace she has brought on her own people through her life of shame.
